Sponsor the Holistic Healing Summit

The Holistic Healing Summit is a virtual event series that brings together experts to present science-based information on lichen sclerosus, pelvic floor physical therapy, mind-body connection practices, and more. The 2022 event runs from May 9-13, and features 12+ sessions on crafting a well-rounded approach to health including mental, physical, emotional, and dietary aspects.

The target audience for the event is adults with vulvas living with lichen sclerosus.

We are currently seeking sponsors to help bring the event to life.

Allies ($1,000)

- Sponsor logo included on the event page and in pre-roll package before each session.
- Logo and hyperlink included in the session agenda for all attendees, and in the "Getting the Most Out of the Event" guide for All-Access attendees.
- At least one social media shoutout from LSSN accounts (additional mentions are dependent on when sponsor signs up)

Awesome Allies ($2,500)

- All Allies benefits plus:
- 2 VIP event passes, which allows access to the event chat (note: sponsor attendees must adhere to the virtual event Code of Conduct).
- Logo and hyperlink included in the LSSN newsletters leading up to the event.

Amazing Allies ($5,000)

- All Awesome Allies benefits plus:
- A dedicated vendor session during the event to engage with attendees, which will be included in the event agenda for all attendees.
- A report of the summary poll results from the event, including responses to specific polls during sessions and NPS scores on the event itself.
- Early access to other partnership opportunities with LSSN in the future.
- 30-60 second ad created by your team to be featured on our event landing and schedule pages.
- Permission to use our logo along with words of appreciation for your support to feature on your website.

Note: Amazing Allies can request a category-exclusive sponsorship for an additional amount. We expect speakers in the areas of gynecology practices, dermatology practices, skin care products, nutritional therapists, nutritional supplements, physical therapists, mental health therapy and coaching, and sexual wellness.
